

Best Places To Eat In Auckland

Eating should be fun and right down below I have the most fun places where you and your family can enjoy a nice meal.

Dante's Pizza: You know when a pizzeria is sending a chef to compete in a “world pizza championships” that they are serious about their pizza. Pizza is the perfect holiday food. No matter if you are here with your friends or the kids. Pizza is one food that pretty much every one likes..... well most normal people do. They have a great selection and man these things are just incredible. If you love pizza, you will be in heaven here.

Burger Queen: Yes that is right, Burger Queen not King! Burger Queen serve up some of the most incredibly huge burgers you will ever see! Not only are these things monstrously huge, but the burgers they grill up are just second to none. What makes this ideal is that they cater for everyone. You can have a huge burger with tons of fillings or you can just have one of their delicious patties and a bun.

The Ancient Mariner: For some real authentic Kiwi style fish and chips, you really cannot beat The Ancient Mariner. Wow the fish here is just delicious, virtually bone free, gorgeous batter and the chips they serve up with it are mind blowing. This is the kind of place where you will eat your fish and chips, take a few steps away from the restaurant and think “hmmm, maybe I could handle another portion” that is how good the fish and chips are here.
